

The Shipley Nature Center

Cool Summer Nights 2022

Each night Gates open at 4:30pm and close at 7:30pm (dusk)

July 23: Presentation 5pm - 6pm

Master Gardeners: Native Plants

~Choose natives that do well with little water while enhancing your landscape

July 30: Presentation 6 pm - 6:45pm

Adelia Sandoval, spiritual representative of the Acjachemen tribe will give a land acknowledgment and discuss native plants such as elderberry, oak, toyon, and white sage and their uses and meanings to the Acjachemen Tribe.

August 6: Performance 5:30 - 7:30pm

The SO-CALedonians Scottish Dance Band

~Enjoy Scottish dancing to Live music. Simple, fun dances will be taught that evening. If you want to participate be sure to wear comfortable shoes

August 13: Presentation by Orange County Birds of Prey 5:00-6:00pm

Learn about treating and rehabilitating injured birds and returning them to the wild. Come see a Red Tail Hawk, a Western Screech Owl, and a Great Horned Owl, up close and personal.

August 20: Presentation 5pm - 6pm

Master Gardeners: Gardening in Small Spaces

~Using plants to enhance a balcony, patio, or small yard.

August 27: Performance 5pm

Enjoy a traditional folk-music Dulcimer Jam in the amphitheater.